

A TOTAL OF 83,708 PERSONS SUPPORTED THROUGH OUR VARIOUS INITIATIVES ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Humanitarian Highlight In Somalia

- An urgent scale up of humanitarian assistance is required to prevent extreme food security and nutrition outcomes, including the risk of famine between now and June. Latest projections inform of a reasonable chance of famine occurring in six areas across Somalia through June.
- In January and February, 186 humanitarian partners reached almost two million people affected by drought with life-saving assistance. With more resources and better access to affected areas, the partners will assist more people.
- Government authorities and humanitarian partners are striving to provide emergency education in IDP settlements and continue to advocate for the integration of school-going children into existing education structures.

IRW family since: 22.02.2022

Qamar Adan is an Emergency and livelihood Assistant in Islamic Relief based in Afgoye

I joined Islamic Relief as an emergency and livelihood assistant in jowhar on 22th February 2022. I am now responsible for leading/contributing/assisting emergency and livelihood activities in Afgoye district and working closely with the existing local authorities.

I previously worked with different aid agencies as project assistant and community mobilizer where I supported in project activities implementation ,community awareness, vulnerability assessments , monitoring , planning corporate events and as well as team building activities. I have vast work experience of 5 years in the field of project management

Working for Islamic Relief which is one of the largest humanitarian organization as Emergency and livelihood assistant was particularly my interest and dream. Islamic Relief provided me with a variety of skills and experience. I discovered having a strong support from colleagues around me by receiving insightful career guidance and benefiting from continuing, collaborative learning opportunities by attending several trainings which enhanced my career growth and development.

My passion for people and awareness helped hone my skills in project management, including team building, strategic planning, vulnerability assessment , decision making, conflict resolution, coaching, training, learning and development, are what make me confident in this field.

I usually follow my daily routines, strictly following my daily plans help time accomplish tasks as per required . Outside of work, I enjoy teamwork and as well as work commitment. Thank you.
